

SIX SURPRISING CONTESTS.

ALL THE FAVORITES BEATEN AT JE-
HOME PARK YESTERDAY.A Great Day's Sport.—Mr. Withers's Report
Cuts Down the Line in the Jockey Club
Handicap—Many Waits Too Long a
Steeplechase—Starke Wins the Mile Dash.

The large number of lovers of horse racing who attended the American Jockey Club's races in Jerome Park yesterday enjoyed a first-class day's sport, and the rare sight of seeing six favorites beaten in so many races, most of them in very fast time.

The racing began with a half-mile rush for a purse of $500, G. L. Lorillard's Biass, by Leamington, carrying 110 pounds; D. D. Withers's Génie-La Polka colt, 110; E. V. Snodder's Girof, by Leamington, 107; A. Belmont's Ard, by Kingfisher, 107; C. Head's Thora, by Longfellow, 107; E. A. Claham's Potomac, by Dickens or Narragansett, 107; and P. Lorillard's Gossip, by Leamington, 107, started for the purse.

Betting—Five to 4 against Biass, 3 to 1 against Thora, 4 to 1 against Withers's colt and Gossip, 7 to 1 against Ard, 8 to 1 against Girof, and 10 to 1 against Potomac.

The youngsters darted away in very close order. Blaize's four white feet and nose in the van for a few strides, Mr. Withers's colt taking the lead as they mounted the rise on the turn into the stretch. Thora then came out of the bunch as they rushed up the straight, with Biasson, Mr. Belmont's new jockey, on Ard, taping. The finish was exciting. Ard won again, guided by leading Mr. Withers's colt, who came third, a full length, Thora, Gossip, Girof, and Potomac trailing in as named. Time, 55 seconds.

Next came a race of one mile, 1½ furlongs for a purse of $500, far and near. Mr. G. L. Lorillard's Monitor (11) by Glenelg, carrying 115 lbs., by Dwyer's Duke, Luke Blackburn (9), 106 lbs., ran for the money.

The race had been even terms, the bookmakers offering even money on Monitor and 5 to 4 against Duke. The two started on their jockey neck and neck, Duke parting company with Monitor at the start, and Duke won by a short head. Monitor was held up in the stretch, the stretch on the first quarter. While running around the turn, the dash was seen between Duke and Monitor, and Duke won, though they had passed the stand and reached the upper turn. Here Hughes let out a link on a little, "Duke is off," and the two, Duke and Monitor, disappeared around the hill, but McLoughlin had not forced the colt, and there was plenty of room for him to pass. Duke won by a short head, Monitor coming in slightly behind. Duke in the stretch, others going up when Duke's head appeared in front. It was now neck-and-neck, and Duke won by a short head, Monitor passing him at the critical point to grasp the lead. Flying up the stretch, Hughes administered a sharp kick, Monitor sending Duke off ahead with an unfeeling mounting of the carry trade. Hughes threw up the sponge opposite the water jump, and Duke came in a winner by six lengths. The small boys in the field threw up their hats and yelled in Old Kentucky style.

This five-furlong was followed by the event of the day, the two-mile struggle for the Jockey Club Handicap, contested at 110 pounds, half-tethered, and carried a purse of $1,000, or $200. This race closed with twenty-four participants, of which these started, i.e., Lorillard's Monitor, 115 lbs., by Glenelg, 106 lbs., by Dwyer's Duke, Frank, by Lexington, 110; F. A. Grindstaff, S. M. St. Martin, by Phoenix, 108; D. D. Withers's Génie-La Polka, 110; E. V. Snodder's Girof, 107; A. Belmont's Ard, 107; C. Head's Thora, 107; E. A. Claham's Potomac, 107; and P. Lorillard's Gossip, by Leamington, 107.

Betting—Five to 2 against Ard, 4 to 1 against Duke, Frank, by Lexington, 110; and 10 to 1 against St. Martin and 10 to 1 against Girof.

The best race in the Jockey Club for a long time. Around the turn, just before the steeple, and Duke and Ard were neck-and-neck, the group and nearly hiding the colors. Quite near the finish, Duke and Ard were neck-and-neck, the other close up, with Burke's Duke keeping in the shade at the fall of the squal. Passing the stand at the end of the first mile, Burke's Duke was in front, Duke and Ard were neck-and-neck. Jim Beck began to warm up, having taken third place, shutting out the daylight between himself and the others. The flushed Duke and Ard were home straight, the Duke the Londoner, running in close order and making a grand race. Coming up the stretch the race was very uncertain, Duke and Ard being neck-and-neck, Duke becoming effective, the others failing to recover promptly with the organizations, English and German smokers in the ranks involved. By order of SCHOFIELD.
